ABOUT

The Hangleton and Knoll Project is a local community development charity with a dedicated youth team.

The youth team is made up of youth workers who:

- Offer open access youth clubs for young people ages 11–19 and up to 25 with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND)
- Provide street-based community youth work (detached/outreach)
- Promote personal and social development
- Enable young people to have a voice, influence and place in their community
- Help build resilience and confidence
- Develop life skills to learn, work, enjoy and achieve
